

Darrin Thomas White

October 4, 1967 ~ August 7, 2020

Darrin Thomas White, 52, passed away August 7th, 2020 in Sandy, Utah. Darrin was born to Frank and Patricia White in Salt Lake City, Utah on October 4th, 1967. He married the love of his life, Cindy, on September 4th, 1987 (later divorced). Together they raised three children.

Darrin played baseball in his youth. He always said he could have “made it big”. He loved muscle cars, especially Mustangs (always a Ford man). He loved football and one of his greatest joys in life was taunting his daughter Alisa about their NFL team rivalries. Darrin had a dry sense of humor. While this was not always apparent, those that were close to him found him amusing. He had a huge heart and would have done anything for those he loved. One of Darrin’s greatest roles was being “Papa” to his six grandchildren.

Darrin is survived by his three children Jennie (Ryan), Aarin (Hailey), and Alisa (Sharrod); six grandchildren Jordan, Makayla, Jackson, Nolan, Hayden, and Saylor, mother Patricia; siblings Eric and Georgia; and nieces and nephews Christian, Lizzy, Adrienne, and Sarah. He was preceded in death by his father Frank (1992) and brother Patrick (2016).

Private family services were held at Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 E. Dimple Dell Road, Sandy.
