Zackory R. White

December 21, 1972 ~ September 2, 2019

Zackory R. White, born in Murray, Utah on December 21, 1972.

Zac passed away peacefully in his home on September 2nd. Family was everything to Zac. He had a special love for his nieces and nephews and treated them like they were his own. From an early age Zac loved baseball. He played catcher for Skyline High School and lead his team to an American Legion State championship. His hard work paid off with a baseball scholarship to Ricks College.

Zac followed his passion for the outdoors to West Yellowstone where he was a fly-fishing guide for 10 years. He returned to Utah to join his father in the family business, Flo-Tech. There he loyally worked side by side with him and his two dogs for 18 years. In all stages of his life, he was able to make lifelong friends and spread his passions and contagious happiness to those he loved most.

Zac loved Mom's sugar cookies, family traditions, hunting/fishing, training/breeding bird dogs, vacations, Cherry Coke, cold weather, flipping the bird, and buying gifts for others. He was a true patriot who loved the 2nd Amendment.

Zac's sense of humor brought joy to all around him and it was able to help him through many physical trials. He was a loyal friend with a quick wit, an infectious laugh, and he always made others feel loved.

Zac is survived by his parents, Randy & Caren; sisters, Heather White & Ashlie Hendricks; brother, Tucker (Lezlie); nieces and nephews: Paxton, Caleb, Samson, Kay, Ivy & Tommy.

Preceded in death by his grandparents, Bud & Fae White and Richard & Patrica Service. Zac loved life and will be deeply missed. Thanks to all who made Zac part of their family. In lieu of flowers, buy ammo.
