April 11, 1934 ~ December 21, 2015

David Laury Adamson, 81; Beloved Patriarch, Husband, Father, Grandfather, and Great-Grandfather passed away peacefully at home surrounded by family on December 21, 2015. He rejoins his wife inthe spirit world. Born on April 11th, 1934 in Murray, Utah toArnold George and Estella SmithAdamson, David was the third of five children, growing up in Draper, Utah.

He graduated from Jordan High School in 1952, going on to graduate from Utah State University with degrees in Chemistry and Metallurgy. He worked at Kennecott Copper as a Research Scientist and Industrial Hygienist. He was very successful in his field holding many patents, and shared his great knowledge with everyone around him. He served a mission for the LDS church in NorthernGermany and was a devout member of the LDS church, serving in many positions including Scoutmaster, High Priest group Leader,Stake High Counselor, Counselor in theBishopric.

In June of 1964, he married Myrna Mae Ault in the Logan temple, and cared for her two young boys as his own. They went on to have two girls, Kimberly and Stacey Adamson.

David had a great knowledge and passion for the outdoors, often going backpacking,camping and fishing. Because of this knowledge and passion, he spent a great deal of time as a Scoutmaster. He inspired many young men to get their Eagle Scout, andmany of his scouts went on to become great Scoutmasters as well.

Davidwas an exceptionally kind man beloved by all. He spent his entire life in the service of others. He was always helping someone- giving people rides to appointments, helping with yard work, and sharing the produce he grew in his garden. He was known by some ofthe children in the neighborhood as the \"Pumpkin Man\" because he would always grow enough for everyone in the family and many neighborhood kids.

He is survived by his children; Bryan Adamson (Michelle), Gregory Adamson (Sandy), Kimberly Adamson, and Stacey Singleton (Ronald), his Grandchildren; Lyndsey (Howard), Nathan (Hayley), Jessica (Stephen), Corey (Diana), Amber (Brandon), Clinton (Shelley), Korbin (Emily), Kirstine, Laura, Kaylie, Amanda, Matthew andgreat-grand children; Karlie, Derek, Brayden, Ryder, Harper, Savannah, Maeli, Brynly, Tyler
