Brian David Ware

June 17, 1999 ~ October 19, 2019

Brian David Ware passed away on October 19, 2019.

Brian was born June 17, 1999, to David Ware and Patricia Witzel Ware, in Reston, VA. As a young child Brian was full of energy and adventure. He loved long walks, especially if they were near a construction or train site where he could watch the construction vehicles or trains. He was a big fan of Batman, and he spent a lot of his early days dressed up as Batman, including picking up his grandparents from the airport in full Batman attire.

Brian was very smart and athletic. He loved watching sports, especially the Oklahoma Sooners, NY Yankees, NY Giants, and Philadelphia 76ers. He loved actually playing basketball and rugby and virtually playing NBA 2K. He had an amazing memory for players and stats. He found great accomplishment in completing a 50-mile backpacking trip on the Appalachian Trail.

Brian attended Kutztown University and Bucks County Community College. He was selected to the National Honor Society of Leadership and Success for the Fall Semester 2019.

Brian was a great employee wherever he worked. He loved his job at Tommy Boy\s pizza in Kutztown and most recently at Home Depot in Fairless Hills. He was so proud of the pin he was awarded by Home Depot for going above and beyond to help a customer.

One of the best days in Brian\s life was when he got his dog, a black lab named Boomer. He trained Boomer to retrieve, and he found great comfort in having Boomer as his pal. Boomer was with Brian to the very end.

Brian is survived by his parents; his siblings, Josh, Olivia, Jason and Christian; his dog, Boomer; and a large extended family. Brian was preceded in death by his beloved grandmother, Bonnie Ware, and his cousin, Lauren Haaga. We can\t wait to see him again in a place where he is bright and happy.
