Don R. Reimann

July 22, 1928 ~ August 8, 2013

Don was born July 22, 1928 to Carl F. and Gladys Fidler Reimann. He passed away August 8, 2013 at his home in Cottonwood Heights, Utah.

Don grew up in Salt Lake City. He served a mission to the British Isles. After returning home, he married the love of his life Virginia Maxfield in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. Together they are the proud parents of 8 boys and 1 girl.

Throughout his life, Don touched many people with his energetic personality and strong beliefs. He taught many to play hard and work harder. He used these traits to accomplish and create many projects. He found great satisfaction in hobbies done with his hands, such as sculpting, model trains, cars, hpv's and anything that could be done with cement.

As a family, we are grateful for Dad's teachings and example, in the way he lived, his beliefs, and his love for us.

He is survived by his loving wife Virginia, children Kurt (Lori), Gary (Lisa), Jon (Kim), Bret (Kelly), Mark (Heather), Bryant (Alison), Kristie (Matt Shaw), Rex and Ryan (Tiffiny) Reimann. 41 grandchildren and 30 great-great grandchildren, his brothers-in-law Bill Harrison and Sam Spry, sibilings Richard (Veronica) Reimann and Ann (Dave) Johnson. Preceded in death by parents, sister Jolene Harrison, sister-in-law Marilyn Spry and grandsons Kory Reimann and Grant Shaw.

Funeral services Tuesday, August 13, 2013 at 11am in the Butler 4th Ward, 6634 S. Greenfield Way (1910 East) with viewings at the church Monday 6-8pm and Tuesday one hour prior to the service. Interment, Larkin Sunset Gardens. Online condolences at www.larkincares.com
