Audrey Lucille Haycock Wittwer

September 14, 1935 ~ May 7, 2018

Our beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and aunt, Audrey Lucille Haycock Wittwer, passed away on May 7, 2018 at the age of 82. She died of causes incident to age and was surrounded by her loving family at the time of her passing. Our dear Mother was known for her joyous and playful spirit and for her energy, spunk, and enthusiasm, eliciting many giggles from those around her. She was always either in the middle of or earnestly planning a program or party.

Audrey was born on September 14, 1935 in Pueblo, Colorado to her parents Wandamere (Sorenson) and Orlando Haycock. Later, she attended Brigham Young University where she met her eternal sweetheart, Marion. They met when Marion played the drums in a band that accompanied the dance group in which Audrey performed.

In addition to her talents in dance and music, Audrey was an exquisite cook, seamstress, event planner, party queen, and cake-decorator (she baked and decorated all of her childrens' wedding cakes, and many others). Because of her fun personality, she had many good friends and a wide social circle,Äîpeople loved to be around her. She was always so careful to be sure that everyone felt comfortable and loved.

She employed her natural leadership, social, and organizational skills in professional pursuits and many church callings. She worked for many years as an executive assistant in many professional organizations, culminating in her service assisting the Managing Director of Finance of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (LDS). She also worked for 25 years at the University of Utah Media Services and KUED.

As a life-long member of the LDS church, Audrey served in the presidencies of many church auxiliaries; she had a special fondness for the youth of the church and enjoyed her callings in the Primary and Young Women organizations. As the chairperson of the Activities Committee, she organized countless road shows, youth trips to Bear Lake, ward and stake events, and even the design and construction of her stake's float entry for the Days of ‚Äò47 parade.

Audrey lived her testimony of the Savior through her tireless service, care, and compassion. Her posterity will endeavor to emulate that example in the lives they lead. She will be missed by her loving children Laurie (Art) Johnson, Bradley (Julie) Wittwer, Elaine (Kelly) Klindt, Julia (Richard) Orr, and Jared (Leslie) Wittwer, 24 grandchildren, and 26 great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her dear husband, Marion Samuel Wittwer, sister Joyce (Chris) Sanders, brother Bevan (Marilyn) Haycock, and daughter-in-law Emily Nelson (Bradley) Wittwer.

Audrey's family is deeply grateful for the loving service provided by the care-givers and nurses of the Legacy House of Taylorsville and Aspire Home Health and Hospice. Her granddaughter, Emily Helm, was frequently at her side as she required more care,Äîthank you Emily for your thoughtful companionship.
