Kevin Matthew Starley

June 16, 1983 ~ October 24, 2013

Kevin Matthew Starley, loving father, brother and son, passed away unexpectedly on October 24, 2013. Kevin was born on June 16, 1983 in Salt Lake City, Utah, to Steven L. and Lynette H. Starley. Kevin was an accomplished home remodeling specialist and learned the trade while working for Progressive Remodelers. He then worked as an oil field safety specialist for Total Safety, traveling from northern Montana to southern Texas. Kevin then returned to his love of remodeling, working for Woodruff Construction. He was an absolute artist in this field of work. Kevin married Shannon Hamby (later divorced) and has a beautiful daughter, Amelia Jane, from this union. Amelia was the pride and joy of his life. Kevin was an avid outdoorsman. He loved fishing, camping and hiking whenever possible. Kevin was preceded in death by his grandfather Ellery, grandmothers Sybil and Mona, uncles Dale and Chris and nephew Erik. Kevin is survived by his parents, brothers, Michael (Liz) and Andrew (fiance Aimee Peterson), daughter Amelia, fiance Colleen Gallagher and his beloved dog Louis.
