Ronald Newbold Dickson

May 3, 1954 ~ November 1, 2014

Born May 3, 1954 to Max Charles and Darlene Newbold Dickson. Died November 1, 2014 of cancer. Married high school sweetheart, Patrice Ellsworth Dickson in the Salt Lake Temple, June 28, 1973. They had an amazing love story for the next 41 years.

Ron loved the Savior, his family, the mountains and bicycling. He had a special place in his heart for Mirror Lake, Big Cottonwood Canyon, and Yellowstone.

Ron graduated from the University of Utah with a Bachelor's in Sociology and a Certificate in Criminology. He worked in Retail Management for Utah Idaho Supply, Grand Central and ZCMI. His favorite times at ZCMI were the holidays and the Christmas windows.

Active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints where he served in 2 Bishoprics, Elder's Quorum President, Gospel Doctrine Teacher, High Council, Ward Mission Leader and Primary teacher. He loved working with the youth.

He was an incredible father and grandfather. Survived by 6 children: Rachael (Bob) West, Talmage (Bre) Dickson, Landon (Joanna) Dickson, Evan (Nicole) Dickson, Garreth Dickson, Gavin Dickson and 16 grandchildren; father, Max Charles Dickson; sister, Kaylene (Steve) Murray. Preceded in death by his mother, Darlene Dickson; brother, Michael Kent Dickson; sister, Dianne Smith; and grandson, Matthew Chipman Dickson.

Special thanks to Dr. Kathryn Peterson who cared for him through Crohn's Disease and cancer. She became a dear and trusted friend whom he cherished. Thanks also to the nursing staff and doctors at Huntsman Cancer Hospital, especially Dr. Andy Nyugen.

A private family graveside service will be held. Interment at the Salt Lake City Cemetery.
