Sharla Glover Burningham

December 24, 1955 ~ November 3, 2013

Our sweet Sharla returned to her Heavenly Father on November 3, 2013 surrounded by her loving family and after a courageous and hard fought battle with cancer. Sharla was born on December 24, 1955 to Parley (Ike) and Lucille Cundick Glover in Salt Lake City, Utah. She graduated from Hillcrest High School and went on to graduate from cosmetology school. She married her high school sweetheart and love of her life, Ned Burningham, in the Salt Lake City LDS temple for time and all eternity on April 2, 1976. She enjoyed working as a hair dresser and administrative assistant as well as serving in numerous church callings, but her true calling and passion was that of a stay at home wife and mother. Sharla was very devoted to her family and loved her grandchildren beyond words. She was a wonderful companion to her husband and a great example of motherhood, selflessness and unconditional love to her children. She enjoyed many vacations with her family that were filled with love, laughter and inside jokes that will forever be treasured memories. We will miss Sharla's quick wit, her wonderful sense of humor and the way she made everyone feel loved. She was dearly loved and will be deeply missed.

Sharla is survived by her loving husband of 37 years, 3 children: Chris (Crystal), Carrie (Paul) Lynch, and Carli Burningham, brothers: Steven (Beverly), Rod (Kim), and Bryce (Michelle), as well as 5 beautiful grandchildren that were the light of her life. She was preceded in death by her mother and father, and her granddaughter Maddison.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, November 9, 2013 at 11:00 a.m. in the Three Mile Creek LDS Church located at 1290 West, 2950 South in Perry, Utah. A viewing will be held from 6-8 p.m. on Friday evening at Larkin Sunset Gardens Mortuary, 1950 east 10600 south, Sandy, and at the church on Saturday morning from 10:00 to 10:45 a.m. Interment at Larkin Sunset Gardens Cemetery.
