Carol Silver Remillard

August 13, 1942 ~ August 10, 2017

Carol Remillard passed away on Thursday, August 10, 2017 at the age of 74 years.

Carol will be dearly missed by her husband of 15 years, John Remillard; her four children Tiffiny Silver Fyans Duncan (Kenny), of Berkeley, CA; Christine Silver Fyans, of Salt Lake City, UT; Joseph Clark Fyans (Danielle), of Lehi, UT and Clark Silver Fyans, of Marina del Rey, CA; grandchildren Davis, Sophia, Ammon (deceased), Gabrielle, Evangeline and Burton; brothers and sisters Jerry Silver, Clark Silver, Don Larsen, Tom Larsen, Robert Larsen, Marge Stolk and Karen Cook; and many other relatives and friends.

Carol was born and raised in Salt Lake City, UT, on Capitol Hill. She attended West High School with Joseph Fyans III, the father of her four children. They moved to Los Angeles, CA, where he attended dental school, before returning to Salt Lake City. She worked at the University of Utah for over 15 years, helping develop Myriad Genetics and played a key role in the development of AHEC from its conception. In 2002, she met and married John and moved to Calgary, Canada, where she resided for the remainder of her life.

Carol's talent for bringing people together, her ability to solve problems, and her fun sense of humor touched countless lives. She loved family heritage, genealogy, missionary work, temple work, and serving others. She developed numerous friendships during each stage of her life, enjoying serving those who were ill or lonely, where her time was their time.

Carol loved live music, often attending concerts to dance, even in her later years. "Backstreet Boys were better singers, NSYNC were better dancers", she stated. Her lifelong hobby as a fashionista, always appearing elegant and youthful. She never stopped learning and growing. At 50, she skydived, inspiring her kids to do the same. Her 70th birthday was celebrated skiing on the slopes of Park City.

She was an amazing mother to her children. She often traveled to their homes, filling them with love. Her time, energy and knowledge continuously enriched their lives. Her grandchildren knew her affectionately as ‚ÄòGammie', and loved her letters, phone calls, visits and too many gifts. She maintained a beautiful spirit in her home with her husband, their door open for neighbors to stop in for a visit with jazz music playing in the background.

A FuneralService will be held for Carol at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints on 413 North West Capitol Street, Salt Lake City, UT on Wednesday, Aug 16, 2017 at 11:00 a.m. with a viewing on Tuesday, Aug 15, 2017 from 6-8 p.m. at Larkin Mortuary, 260 E.
