He had hobbies too numerous to list.

He served in many church callings for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, including Bishopric Counselor, High Council, Young Men/Scouting, and many others. He also served a 2 year mission in the Utah State Prison with his wife Jean where he extended for another 16 years of service. At the time of his passing he was an ordinance worker in the Oquirrh Mountain Temple with his wife Jean.
