Robb Preston Gold

October 2, 1971 ~ April 30, 2016

Robb Preston Gold, of Sandy Utah, passed away Saturday, April 30th due to complications from long term illness.

Robb married the love of his life, Jana, Sept. 23rd 1994. Together they devoted their lives to sons: Jace, Alec, and Travis.

Robb Gold was the ultimate husband, father, best friend, lover of life and music and will forever be seared into our souls. Robb left us with the memory of his smile, his very contagious laughter, his unconditional love, sense of humor and always his witty sarcasm. He loved well and is loved beyond measure.

May the pain finally be released from your body and soul. Fly boundless and free, we will see you soon our Starman.

"Let the children lose it

Let the children use it

Let all the children boogie" Starman, David Bowie

Robb is survived by: wife, Jana, sons: Jace, Alec, Travis; parents: Sue and Bill Crismon, Ron and Shirley England and father Jeffrey; brothers: Troy (Patricia), Matt (Cindy), Scot (Leslie), Brandon (Gina), Ron (Melissa), Stephen (Valerie); sisters, Hillary (Randall), Ann (Jed), Rhonda (Todd), and Melanie (Ken).

A Celebration of Life will be held Saturday, May 7th at Alta Peruvian Lodge -- 1:30 p.m. Casual Dress.

In lieu of flowers Robb's wishes would be to have donations sent to: Helping Orphans Worldwide, (HOW) (helpinghow.org), an organization dear to his heart, School of Rock, or a non-profit of your choice.

Online Condolences: www.larkincares.com