Chad died unexpectedly but peacefully in his home on October 31, 2019 in Brigham City. He was born on January 17, 1969 in Salt Lake City.

Chad was a loyal friend and many friends would say he is the best person they knew. He always displayed courage and was willing to help protect his loved ones. He loved the outdoors, hunting, camping, fishing and photography, and shared the loved of history with his mom. Our hearts are truly broken at the loss of Chad. That big loving heart of his just simply failed him, leaving a world that will never be the same for those who loved him.

Survived by his mother Kay Newland; dad Wayne Newland; sister Tawnya McGrath Walker; daughter Chelsea Young Bowdren; brother-in-law Alan Walker; niece Lexi Walker; and "chosen brother" Luke Knudsen.
