Lauren Elyse Bradley

May 5, 1986 ~ August 22, 2017

Traveler, ER nurse, actress, comedian, adventurer, wanderluster, dog whisperer, reader, cook, lover, dreamer, knitter, nanny, laugher, hugger, prankster, critical thinker, empathic, trustworthy, radiant, combated adversity through impressive feats of ingenuity, bravery and strength.\" Dude, I rock. Now I'm an Angel".

Lauren is survived by her mother Betsy, father Stephen, brother Mike, stepfather Barry, grandmother Kay and thousands of loving friends.

A celebration of Lauren's life will be held on Sunday, September 10, 2017 at This is the Place Heritage Park, 2601 Sunnyside Ave., Salt Lake City, Utah 84108 in The Garden Place with a tribute from 1:00-2:30 pm and an open house from 2:30-5:00pm. Please check the Facebook site at Lauren E. Bradley "Celebration of Life" for updated information.

In lieu of flowers or gifts and in memory of this special woman, the Lauren Elyse Bradley Scholarship Fund has been created at https://healthcare.utah.edu/moran/giving to enable other nursing students and professionals to have the same life changing experience that shaped Laurens work and ambition. All donations will be used to provide an annual scholarship in Lauren's name, to underwrite the expenses of a volunteer.
