Steve Cesar Falc√≥n

October 22, 1941 ~ September 6, 2013

Steve Cesar Falc√≥n was born to Esteban Falc√≥n and Santiaga Hernandez on October 22, 1941, and raised in Corpus Christi, TX. He passed away September 6, 2013 in Salt Lake City, UT. Steve attended Elizabeth Street School (now called T.G. Allen Elementary), Wynn Seale Jr. High, Roy Miller High, and graduated from Del Mar Technical College in automotive mechanics. He worked for the Corpus Christi Army Depot for many years and later transferred to Tooele Army Depot to be close to relatives in SLC, UT.

Steve's hobbies included art, cooking, collecting recipes, gardening and watching westerns. He was a faithful member of the LDS Church and advanced to the office of High Priest. He received recognition in his job for his high quality of work and added performance. He was always proud to say "I'm doing the best I can." He is a cherished son, brother, uncle and friend, and we will greatly miss his kind and generous heart. He married Patricia Ann Busby (deceased) in 1972 in the Mesa Arizona Temple.

He is survived by his 98 year old mother, Santiaga H. Falc√≥n; his 2 sisters, Alicia F. Nielsen and Virginia F. Baldi (Alvaro); his brother David G. Falc√≥n, many nephews and nieces and several grand nephews and nieces. Preceded in death by his father, Esteban Falc√≥n and his wife Patricia Ann Busby Falc√≥n.

We are proud to say that he has faithfully completed his mission here on earth and is now free to continue his journey in the everlasting realms of our Father in Heaven.

Goodbye beloved brother. Find peace and love with those who have gone on before, and rest from all your cares until we meet again. Have a wonderful journey.
