Angela Torres Barela

October 9, 1924 ~ May 2, 2018

\"Don't grieve for me, now I'm free. I'm following a path I chose for me.

I took a hand, when I heard a call. I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day. To laugh, to love, to work, or play.

Tasks left undone must stay that way. I've found my peace, at the end of the day.

If my parting has left a void, then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss. Oh yes these things, I too, will miss.

Be not burdened with time of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart, and share with me.

God heard my plea and set me free.\"

Mom's greatest gift was giving to those that needed an extra hand. 20+ individuals made a stay at our 8 children home; Mom always made room for that needy person. We will miss you, Mom, but remember the pleasant, gentle, firm memories we all share.

Angela "Angie" Torres Barela is preceded in death by her husband, Merlin T. Barela. She is survived by 3 children: Merlin Barela, Mae Barela, and Kaye (Doug) Price; also by many adoring grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren.
