Anna Pugsley Clark

October 11, 1920 ~ January 18, 2018

Patsy was born at St. Marks Hospital on the West side of Salt Lake City, a daughter of Lester and Hattie Pugsley. She is survived by a brother, Richard Pugsley, of Santa Ana, California. She was preceded in death by her husband, Arthur F. Clark and her cherished sister Edna Wolfgramm. Her marriage to Art spanned more than 70 years. They met and fell in love at the Rainbow Rendezvous in Salt Lake. The marriage produced four children including Larry (Carolyn) of Tempe, AZ, Marsha (Scott) Norris of Las Vegas, Jay (Lillian) of Centennial, CO, and A. Brent Clark (Anne, deceased) of Nephi. She is also survived by 9 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Patsy graduated from West High School and the University of Utah. She taught school for more than 25 years in Salt Lake. Patsy enjoyed attending DUP meetings, bowling, Mexican Train Dominoes, bingo, and first thing in the morning solving the Jumble puzzle in the paper. We love you Mom.
