

Norma Jean Farrimond Clay

Dec. 6, 1942 ~ June 24, 2020

Norma Jean Farrimond Clay passed away surrounded by family at home in Nibley, Utah on Wednesday, June 24, 2020. Jean was born December 6, 1942 to James LaVon and Norma Farrimond in Salt Lake City, Utah.

She graduated from West High School and married Edwin "Ed" Cheney Clay on August 8, 1960. Together, they raised 4 children. Jean enjoyed sewing, scrap booking, and crafting and had a passion for genealogical work. She was a devout member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints serving in the Relief Society, Primary, Sunday School, and Young Women's organizations. She also served a 2-year mission with Ed in Cherry Hill, New Jersey. Jean will be remembered for her quick wit and compassion.

She is survived by her husband of almost 60 years; 4 children Connie (Mick), Michael (Nancy), Todd (MyHien), and Robb (Catharine); 9 grandchildren John (Haley), Annie, Hannah, Desiree, Mallory, Kale, Tayben, Dejan, and Kesson; 3 great-grandchildren Charlie, Robbie, and Clay; and sister Janet Farrimond Cowles (Niel). She will be dearly missed and eternally loved.

A viewing will be held on Sunday, June 28, 2020 from 5:00 -7:00 P.M. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints at 590 West Antelope Dr., Layton, Utah. A graveside service will be held on Monday, June 29, 2020 at 11:00 A.M. at the Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 E. Dimple Dell Rd. (10600 S.), Sandy, Utah. If planning on attending, face masks and social distancing are requested.
