

Connie Mae James Gustin

August 4, 1950 ~ November 17, 2016

Connie Mae James Gustin passed away on Thursday, November 17, 2016 in Murray, Utah, after a long and courageous battle with Muscular Dystrophy. She was born August 4, 1950 in Salt Lake City, Utah to Edith Timmons and Alvin Boyd James.

Connie attended Skyline High school and she was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Connie was diagnosed with Muscular Dystrophy as a child and was not given much hope for longevity, did she prove them wrong! She was affiliated with the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Utah. Competing for Miss Wheelchair Utah in 1987, she received the title for Miss Fashionable. She also kept close tabs on the fight to cure the disease and gained many online friends in the process.

Connie was a fun loving, wild child. She embraced life to the fullest and then some! She enjoyed crafts, Facebook, family, friends, vacations, adventures to Wendover, country music, and Trace Adkins.

She was blessed with a beautiful smile to share with everyone!

Connie is survived by her wonderful sister-in-law Kathie James, nephew Tommy James, niece Kami (Scott) Buchanan, grand-nieces; Bella, Baleigh, and Bridgett Buchanan, and her best friend/cousin LuAnn James Halliday (aka Lewis) along with many close friends, relatives, and medical staff whom she loved dearly. Proceeded in death by her parents, brother, Tom James, and grandparents Alvin and Mary James.
