

Amie Lyn Bowles

January 13, 1976 ~ December 23, 2015

Beautiful, loving, smart, thoughtful, kind and caring, Amie Lyn Bowles, 39, returned to her Father in Heaven on December 23, 2015. Her younger brother, Joshua, whom she loved so much and who had passed away when she was eleven, was there to embrace her once again. Her life of struggles behind her, now she will be surrounded daily by the love she so deserved.

Amie was the first child born to her loving parents, Lorrie L. Venema and M. Blaine Bowles, entering this world on January 13, 1976. She graduated from Kearns High School in 1994. She met Bob Eliason and in 2000 they were married. She enjoyed traveling with him and helping him run his trucking business. Bob passed away in 2011. He is now at peace with Amie and knowing she is finally safe.

After Bob's death, Amie's second mother looked out for her needs (due to Lorrie residing in Montana) and the family very much appreciates all she did for Amie.

Amie is survived by her parents and her four brothers: Ronnie, Jeremy, Cameron and Braden Bowles as well as her large extended family of many brothers and sisters, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. She loved them all! Her amazing memory of all of their phone numbers and birthdates will be missed! Until we meet again sweet, precious, sister and daughter, our love to you forever!

Funeral services will be held Monday, January 4, 2016 at 11:00 AM in the Larkin Mortuary Riverton Chapel, 3688 West 12600 South Riverton, Utah. A visitation will take place Sunday night from 5-7 PM and Monday from 10:00-10:45 AM prior to the service. Interment will take place at Elysian Burial Gardens.
