Charles Courtney Endicott

November 1, 1977 ~ November 25, 2013

Chaz was born on November 1, 1977 in Thousand Oaks, California to Charles Morton Endicott and Vickie Lyn Leek Endicott. He passed away on November 25, 2013 in Sandy, Utah. He married his best friend and love of his life, Jessica Paxman in Las Vegas, Nevada in 1996. Together they had 2 children, Izak Charles Zane Endicott and Jaide Addeline Zoey Endicott, they were his pride and joy.

He loved hunting, skateboarding, snowboarding and anything outdoors. He also enjoyed drawing, playing the drums and guitar, reading and taking things apart. He owned and operated Timeless Hardwoods through which he designed and installed the most beautiful hardwood floors throughout the Western United States. His handcrafted and custom designs were featured in various home shows.

Chaz was the salt of the earth. He never hid his love from anyone. He would endeavor to make it a story. Everyone who was a part of his life always felt so loved and accepted. He loved to make everyone laugh with his funny one-liners, unique nicknames and his "special" dances. We are all better for knowing you Chaz!

Survived by his wife Jessica, children Izak and Jaide, loving mother Vickie, sister Chantel (Mark) Rowley, grandmother Ruby Ann Keck, aunt Sherrie (Jed) Mitchell, uncle Steve (Keith) Leek, many cousins and extended family and too many loving and supportive friends to count. Preceded in death by his father Charles, grandfathers Donald Leek, John Keck and Clyde Endicott and grandma Lois Endicott.

Services will be held at 11:00am on Saturday, November 30, 2013 at the Meadowlark Chapel, 2180 East Meadowlark Way (9020 South) in Sandy. A visitation will be held from 9:30 am to 10:30 am prior to the services.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation in Chaz's memory to a charity of your choice.

We will all miss you more than words can express.
