

Frank Lynn Ott

August 25, 1938 ~ January 30, 2015

On January 30, 2015 we lost a most wonderful man. A loving husband, father, grandfather and friend. Lynn was a man who identified with all of these titles to the fullest. He was passionate in his love for his family and loyal and caring to his friends.

Lynn was born on August 25, 1938 in Escalante, Utah to Franklin and Naomi Davis Ott. He was a successful business man, being part owner in Cavalier Countertops and Designerline Furniture. Always busy, always on the run, he found retirement to be quite boring and complained loud and long until he found that traveling, going fishing and camping anytime he wanted wasn't so bad after all. His retirement years became full and happy.

He is survived by his wife Susan, sons Steven (Kristen), Cameron (Kristine), John (Saria), stepson Jeffrey Pennington, daughters Suzanne Borelo, Angie (John) Bynum and his loving grandchildren and great grandchildren. Preceded in death by his brother Blaine, sister Bonnie and granddaughter Erin.

Lynn we will miss your beautiful smile, teasing and corny jokes. You were the center of our lives and we love you so. Be with your loved ones and try not to get into any trouble.

Goodbye My Love.
