John also loved being a devoted dad, grandfather and great grandfather. John and Kara Lee have three children—Steve, Mitch, and Susan. John was actively involved in their lives. Recognizing Steve's musical talent, he bought Steve his first guitar and took him to guitar lessons. This was the start of Steve's career in music. Mitch loved sports. John spent many hours throwing the football and coaching Mitch in several sports. He also bought Mitch his first drafting table, which began his career in architecture. John encouraged Susan to be an independent woman and pursue her education to become a registered nurse. He was a proud grandfather of 10 children and 24 great grandchildren.
