

Ann Rogerson Adams

July 7, 1930 ~ September 24, 2021

Ann Adams passed away peacefully at the age of 91 on September 24, 2021. She was the beloved daughter of M. Kenneth and Cleo Waddoups Rogerson.

Mom was an exceptionally gifted lady. She lived a long and joyous life as a wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and sister. Her life was a legacy of grace, and beauty.

She had a great love for children and graduated from the University of Utah with a teaching degree in Elementary Education. While attending the University of Utah she affiliated with the Chi Omega sorority and developed lifetime friendships there.

As a devoted wife she supported her husband Web, traveling to numerous Republican Conventions across the nation meeting and welcoming to the state of Utah many diverse candidates.

A lifetime member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, she enjoyed her calling with the Tabernacle Choir, alongside her father and brother.

Mom treasured her many years working at OC Tanners retail store in Salt Lake City. She truly had a passion for her clients she served as well as her fellow associates.

She loved spending recreational time with dad. Fishing the Madison River, Henrys Fork, and Bear Lake reservoir. Together they would explore the off beat roads of Idaho, Montana and Wyoming creating memorable experiences.

Mom had a deep passion for nature, gardening and animals. Her beloved dog Lucy was her constant and loyal companion towards the end of her life that brought her much comfort and joy.

The family cabin at Pines Ranch was dear to mom’s heart throughout her life making unforgettable memories with family and friends.

How grateful we are to our mother. She has given us an overflowing abundance of memories and taught us well. Her grace, goodness and kindness will follow us and inspire us all the days of our lives. In her final days when reflecting on her life she turned to us and summed it all up with these simple yet poignant words, “I did it all.”

Ann is survived by her four children, Webster Adams (Christine), Mary Ann Guisinger (Mike), Liz Warner (Bart), Paul Adams (Trish), brother Tom Rogerson, and Sister Catherine Ridd (Mike). Also, 16 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren.

At mom’s request, a private family graveside service will be held in Oakley, Utah.
