

Frank Ferrin Stringham

July 6, 1932 ~ January 20, 2015

Frank Ferrin Stringham, kind and loving father and husband, loyal friend and admired acquaintance stepped out of mortality on the 20th of January 2015 into the arms of loved ones joyfully expecting his arrival. Frank was 82 years old and was vibrant in his love for life. He fought on the front lines in Korea \til the day that war ended. He served several missions for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. His love for God and family was foremost in his thoughts. His example of goodness was magnified by his priesthood power, through which many great blessings were pronounced. He climbed mountains (literally and figuratively) and kept himself unspotted from the world. And, oh that smile!

Frank married Juliane Grace Lassig and they produced eight beautiful children, one (Aleta) of whom was so happy to welcome him Home. There is S. Frank (Lynnae), Don (Mojgan), Grant (Jenna), David (Bethany), Julie (Neil) John and Eve (Jeffrey). And then there's 28 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. How life does go on ~ Oh my!
