Becky Lynn Carter

August 10, 1959 ~ April 8, 2023

Becky Lynn (Brett) Carter, 63, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, and friend, passed away from heart failure Saturday, April 8, 2023, at 5:30 pm at the Riverway Center in South Jordan, Utah.

Becky passed peacefully after being cared for all day by her mother, Karlyn, and enjoying conversation and expressions of love from her family. She developed heart failure and kidney disease several years ago and managed her condition as it worsened through very difficult times supported continuously by her family and many caregivers, angels, and a loving God whose timing of every moment gave evidence as to her relationship with Him.

Becky was born August 10, 1959, in Modesto, California then as a child moved to Bellevue, Washington, then Beaverton, Oregon, and then at age 8 to Spokane, Washington with her family where she lived until marrying Richard Everett Carter in the LDS Ogden Temple October 5, 1978. Becky and Rick raised their family starting in Spokane, then in Hayden Lake and Boise, Idaho, and finally in Sandy, Utah where Becky formed many close friendships in the Heytesbury and Willow Creek neighborhoods.

Becky is known by anyone who has met her as a kind, sweet, gentle, and giving person, always willing to serve and be the perfect host for any gathering. She is also known as a gifted pianist and accompanist, crafter, cook, and the decorator of her most beautiful homes visited and admired by many. Becky's greatest accomplishment and expression of her gifts is the raising and forming of her family. Becky and Rick spent their time together nurturing their family, caring for their home, traveling the world, visiting relatives, attending 43 years of family reunions, building businesses, and seeing every chick flick.

Becky's passing follows the passing of her father, Jerry Brett, her grandparents, and her aunt Luann Campbell. Becky is survived by her husband Richard Everett Carter, their 5 daughters Christina Leigh Roberts (Jameson), Cara Nichole Sessions (Tommy), Cayla Cherice Carroll (Jerry), Cachae Corein Moncur (Nicholas), Cassidi Amber Carter, her 18 grandchildren (Jaycee, Kylee, Carter, Jaxon, Taylor, Chase, Tommy, Sammy, Gracie, Maggie, Bella, Hartley, Hayden, Everett, Nyxon, Harrison, Cecelia, Garrett, and great-grandson Julian), her mother, Karlyn Summerill Frost Brett, and siblings Marci Ann Romney (Rick), Thomas George Brett (Andrea), Scott Kennedy Brett (Jennifer), Kelly Leigh Armstrong, and their children.

The funeral is managed by Larkin. There is no viewing. The funeral service is being held at 11 am, Monday, April 17, 2023, at the Buttercup Chapel of the Heystesbury Ward 1600 E. Buttercup Drive, Sandy, Utah. The interment will be at Larkin Cemetery, 10600 S. 1950 E. Sandy, Utah. And a luncheon will follow the interment back at the Buttercup chapel.
