Bonnie Lee Williams Clark passed away on April 4, 2026, at the age of 80, surrounded by family.

Bonnie was a faithful member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and found joy in her testimony and service. She was sealed for time and all eternity to her beloved husband, John Wayne Clark, in the Salt Lake Temple. Together they built a loving family.

Bonnie is survived by her six children: Terren (Terry), Bryan (Diane), Kenya (Todd, Garrek (Natalia), Amber (Jesse), and Micah (Jodee), along with 17 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren, who were a joy in her life.

Bonnie showed her love through service, especially in the kitchen. She was known for preparing elaborate meals that brought family and friends together. She also worked as a lunch manager, where she formed lifelong friendships and served those around her.

She was a woman who developed the spiritual gift of charity, showing Christlike love, compassion, and selflessness to others. Bonnie lived with quiet strength and steady faith. She loved many, and will be missed.
