

Boyd A. Newbold

May 30, 1928 ~ January 29, 2022

On January 29th, our dad, Boyd A. Newbold passed away in Herriman, Utah at his daughter Vicki's home. He was born May 30, 1928, in Magna, Utah. His parents were Bertrand Newbold and Louise McDonald. He married the girl next door, Joyce Ann Hardee.

He was a hardworking man. He spent time in the coal mines of Castle Gate, Utah. He worked for 30 years as a mechanic foreman at Tooele Army Depot, Tooele, Utah. He traveled around the Salt Lake valley and worked as a blacksmith in his spare time.

He loved to hunt and fish. His favorite fishing grounds were in Huntington, Utah.

He is preceded in death by his wife, Joyce and his children, Mark, Krissie, Shellie and Kory.

He is survived by his nephew, Joel Vexler, California, his sister, Helen Vexler, California, his cousin, David Forstrum, Alaska and his daughters, Vicki and Patti and many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Funeral services and viewing are on Thursday, Feb. 3 at Larkin Mortuary in Riverton, Utah. Viewing is at 12:00 and funeral is at 1:00. Masks are requested at funeral services.

Burial is immediately after services at Redwood Memorial, 6500 S. Redwood Rd. West Jordan, Utah