

Bradley Beynon Fellows

August 28, 1990 ~ December 25, 2023

“Go then, there are other worlds than these.” -Stephen King

Bradley Beynon Fellows unexpectedly passed away at home on Christmas morning, 2023. Leaving behind his wife Amanda (Lindsey), and his boys Dominic and Bodhin, Brad also has another baby boy who is due to be born on March 17th, 2024, who will be named Maddoc Bradley Fellows in his honor. Brad was preceded in death by his and Amandas son, Declan, with whom he is now reunited.

Brad was a remarkable person who touched the lives of all who knew him. He had a contagious smile and unwavering commitment to his family. He was a loving and devoted husband and father who cherished his family above all else. Brad worked tirelessly to provide for them, and his love and dedication knew no bounds.

Brad was born on August 28th, 1990, in Salt Lake City, Utah to Wendi L Beynon. He was a treasured brother to his sister Tiffany Nelson (Levi) and brother Jamison Fellows (Jamie) and has many nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Brad graduated from Cyprus High School in 2009. He loved to read. Stephen King was his favorite author, and he could quote anything from his books. He also recently fell in love with snowboarding. Brad always told people how much he loved them and how grateful he was for everyone in his life that loved and cared for him.

Brad’s absence will be deeply felt and he will be missed every single day. His memory will forever live on in our hearts. We will cherish the time we had with him and hold on to the love and warmth he brought into our lives.

“Do any of us, except in our dreams, truly expect to be reunited with our heart’s deepest loves, even when they leave us only for minutes, and on the most mundane of errands? No, not at all. Each time they go from our sight we in our secret hearts count them as dead. Having been given so much, we reason, how could we expect not to be brought as low as Lucifer for the staggering presumption of our love?” -Stephen King

Private family services will be held to honor Brad. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the GoFundMe account setup using the following link: https://gofund.me/577828b9
