November 22, 1948 ~ November 6, 2021

Brent Rushton Blair passed quietly in his home on November 6, 2021, with his loving wife, Becky, by his side.

Brent was born November 22, 1948, in Rigby, Idaho. He enjoyed playing sports. His love of baseball earned him the nickname, Yogi, after the great Yogi Berra. Brent loved the outdoors. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping, hiking and racing through Yellowstone on his snowmobile.

Brent's greatest love was his family. He was determined to make Becky Lee Haggard his wife. His greatest accomplishment was taking her to the Idaho Falls Temple to be married and sealed together for time and eternity on March 16, 1979. Becky was the light of his life. He was elated when his son, Alec became part of the family. His happiest times were spent providing for and protecting his family. He loved going on adventures with them. Their trip to Hawaii was a highlight for them all. He was a loving big brother to his two sisters, Jann and Julie and he treasured spending time with his brother Clay.

Brent loved serving the Lord. His strong testimony carried him through life. He served a mission in England, was a member of several bishoprics, and served on the high council. He was always willing to teach others and share his testimony. He was known for his wisdom and patience. People sought him out for his counsel.

Most of Brent's working years were spent as an outside salesperson for industrial equipment. His goal was to always make sure his clients understood the equipment that they purchased.
