

Brian Thomas Sherwood

August 15, 1984 ~ January 20, 2021

Brian Thomas Sherwood, born August 15th 1984, peacefully pasted away on January 20th 2021, with his loving wife and parents by his side.

Brian was well known in Utah's musical community for his gift of writing exceptional, moving lyrics and music, as well as his pure, beautiful tenor voice, fronting bands such as The Recovery and The Archives. He enjoyed working with other artists, sharing the joy music brought to his life. His voice will be forever remembered and missed by so many.

Brian will also be remembered for his sense of humor, his ability to make others laugh and feel good, and for a generous, giving spirit that surpassed what he could afford to give. "They needed it more than I do," he would say as he handed someone his last dollar or the shirt or jacket from off of his back.

Brian recently celebrated the first anniversary of his marriage to the love of his life, Zrinka Dozic. They were each other's first love many years ago and final love after reconnecting.

Brian looked up to his brother Rich who shared his love of music and the Utah Jazz among other interests. He adored his nephew, Ian and niece, Issa. He loved to play hard with Ian and melted when he held little Issa in his arms.

Brian was especially close to his aunts, Nicky and Ruth, and to his grandma and grandpa. He was so appreciative of all of their support over the years and wanted them to be proud of him. His grandpa was his hero, and Brian wanted to be like him.

Brian and his father, Pat, developed a special bond as they made regular trips to Logan. Pat will miss his "buddy."

Brian's mother, Denice, will have a hole in her heart that will heal only when they reunite after this life. She was his confidant, and he was her best friend and the light of her life.

Brian was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, attending the 17th Ward in the Salt Lake Stake.

Brian is survived by wife Zrinka Dozic-Sherwood, stepson Aidin Dozic, father Richard Pat (Rosie) Sherwood III, mother Denice (Larry) LaGalle, grandparents John and Nell Bee, brother Richard (Sandra) Sherwood IV, nephew Ian, niece Isabella, aunts Ruth Bee and Nicky Sherwood, and uncles Paul Randall (Kaori) Bee and John (Shannon) Bee.
