

Bryce Kenneth Bird

May 4, 1983 ~ August 12, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Bryce Kenneth Bird, a beloved son, brother, friend, and adventurer. Born on May 4, 1983, in Sandy, Utah, Bryce brought immense joy and enthusiasm to the lives of those who had the privilege of knowing him. He left this world on August 12, 2023, at the age of 40.

Bryce's journey began in Sandy, where he was welcomed into the loving embrace of his parents, Steven and Gaylynn Bird. A graduate of Skyline High School's Class of 2002, Bryce's insatiable curiosity and determination were evident from an early age. These qualities led him to the University of Utah, where he graduated in 2010 with a degree in economics. His academic accomplishments were a testament to his dedication and intellectual curiosity.

Known affectionately as "Birdman" to his friends, Bryce was a free spirit who found solace and excitement in the great outdoors. His love for boxing, rock climbing, snowboarding, skate boarding, and water sports was surpassed only by his deep connection to nature.

Bryce’s greatest companion in life was his loyal dog, Tabbi. They were inseparable and she brought him great joy. Their bond exemplified the pure and unwavering love that exists between humans and their four-legged friends. Bryce's nurturing spirit extended beyond his canine companion, as he also fostered strong friendships that spanned the breadth of his interests and adventures.

Bryce leaves behind a legacy of enthusiasm, perseverance, and an unyielding zest for life. He will be remembered for his memorable laughter, boundless energy, and his ability to inspire those around him to embrace the richness of every moment.

As we bid farewell to Bryce Kenneth Bird, we find comfort in the memories he created and the impact he made on the lives of many. He is survived by his parents, Steven and Gaylynn Bird, siblings Jennifer (Kris) Larson, Todd (Fawn) Bird, Melissa (James) Huntington as well as numerous loving nieces and nephews, extended family members and a community of friends who will forever hold him close in their hearts.

Rest in peace, Bryce. We love you and you will be missed.
