Alan Keith Rowley

June 29, 1948 ~ March 2, 2018

Our loved father, grandfather, great-grandfather and brother lost his battle to cancer on March 2, 2018 in Salt Lake City, Utah. His daughters and grandchildren mourn his loss while also being grateful that he is no longer suffering and has been reunited with his mother and father.

Keith was born in Mt. Pleasant Utah on June 29, 1948, the last of four children to Lydia Draper Rowley and Wilbert Rowley.

Keith is survived by daughters: Lori (Gary) Sandberg, Crystal Piper, grandchildren Bryce (Katherine) Williams, Justin Sandberg, and Emily Piper, Siblings: Vance, Robert and Kathy as well as one great-granddaughter.

After graduation from West High School in 1966, Keith was drafted to the Vietnam War where he served honorably. Keith will forever be known as someone who would give the shirt of his back or last dollar in his wallet in order to help a family member or a stranger. Keith's generous nature has spread to many members of his family who have all installed that value into their own lives.

Keith will be remembered for his participation in outdoor recreation such as hunting, fishing, or working out in the yard.

A celebration of life honoring Keith will take place later this summer in Mt. Pleasant, Utah.
