Colleen graduated from Russell High School and made the trip to Salt Lake City where she resided at the Beehive House and began working for Zions Bank.

Mom enjoyed being a tour guide at the Beehive House where she previously resided as well as traveling the world, camping, boating, skiing, tennis, spending time at the family cabin and bowling, where she won many medals in the Huntsman Senior Games. Her talents were numerous including singing, acting, calligraphy, ceramics, toll painting, shopping and making Ukrainian eggs, to mention a few. She shared her testimony and talent while servings in various callings in the LDS church. Mom's quick wit and love for life extended to many including her service in the Utah Aids Foundation where many people benefited from her generous nature and compassion.

Colleen is survived by her children, Lorrin Sisam (Lawana), Becky Van Cott (Darrell) and Shannon Wilde (Jeff) along with 11 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her husband, son David Michael Sisam and granddaughter Brittany Lori Sisam.
