

Carol Nadine Fowler

February 25, 1937 ~ June 24, 2024

Cottonwood Heights, Carol Nadine Fowler passed away at home, peacefully, with family by her side on June 24, 2024. Born February 25, 1937, to Charles and Margaret Easthope in Salt Lake City, Utah. A graduate of South High School, Carol went on to work as a union meat wrapper for Grand Central where she met the love of her life, Joseph Richard Fowler. Richard liked the “way her bum wiggled when she wrapped meat” and the two married in Elko Nevada, October 1958.

Carol was the most kind and giving person to everyone she encountered. She was a loving mother to their three children, Mike (Shauna), Craig (Leidy) and Kim (Marcus). Carol thoroughly enjoyed being a grandma for grandchildren and great grandchildren, Amber (Marquis) and Leif; Katie (William), Stockton, Aniston, Beckham, Mary and Liam; Lisa, MaKenna, Kolby; Joe (Hailey); Ramon and Jose; Cort, Bree and Paige; Chaseton, Brennon and Ryan; nephews Mark, David and Joe; nieces, Kirsten, Jennifer, Karen and Debra. She was preceded in death by her parents Charles Kenneth and Margaret Helen Ashbridge Easthope, younger brother Donald Kenneth (Sandy) Easthope, and her husband Richard.

Friends and family are invited to attend the viewing starting at 9:30 am and the graveside service at 11:00 am on Monday, July 1, 2024, both the viewing and graveside will be at Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 East Dimple Dell Road (10600 South), Sandy, UT.

Guardian Angel

You make the sun shine on a cloudy day
When I'm sick you kiss the pain away
Your tender voice took away my fears
Your hand that wiped away my tears
The love you give so honest and pure
Keeping me forever safe and secure
You make flowers bloom in the spring
It was you who fixed my broken wing
Mom, because of you I now know love
My guardian angel from above
