

Carolyn Madeline Casady Parrish

February 28, 1936 ~ November 6, 2024

Carolyn Madeline Casady Parrish passed away November 6, 2024 at the age of 88 in West Jordan Utah. Carolyn was born February 28, 1936 to Carl Casady and Madeleine Cottis in Salt Lake City, Utah and was the 3rd of 4 children.

Carolyn was introduced to the love of her life by her best friend and later Sister-in-law Christella Evans and on November 3, 1952 was married to Marion Carlyle Parrish (Rip) in Denver, Colorado. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake City Temple in 1966. Together Rip and Carolyn enjoyed over 40 years, hunting, fishing, rafting, playing cards and slots, traveling and so much more, but their greatest adventure was raising their children which included 4 sons and 1 daughter. These children would bless her with 13 grandchildren. While they were young it was not uncommon to host all of their grandchildren and even extras for swimming parties with a fresh garden supper most weekends in the summer. Their posterity has expanded to include 45 great grandchildren and one expected great great grandchild most of whom received a special quilt handmade by granny.

Carolyn was an advocate for hard work and was rarely idle. From a young age Carolyn started working and held many jobs her favorite being her career as a custom decorator for JC Penny where she was recognized for her accomplishments in this field. She continued this work even after retirement taking pride in the care of her home and yard, Carolyn spent the last few decades of her life in Ferron, Utah where she became a pink lady volunteer, avid bunco player, Utah Jazz fan and regular at the local Grub Box. She continued to enjoy spending time with friends and family.

She was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints where her favorite calling was serving in the nursery. She will be remembered most for her straight forward, feisty approach to life, legendary banana and zucchini bread, and colorful language but mostly for her love and generosity. She will be greatly missed.

Carolyn is preceded in death by her, spouse Marion, Son Scott, parents, in-laws and many other family and friends. She leaves behind her children Marilyn Parrish, Carl (Diane) Parrish, Gordon Parrish, and Doug (JaNene) Parrish, all of her grandchildren, great grandchildren and other friends and family.
