

Charles (“Chuck”) John Schick

March 19, 1957 ~ December 6, 2021

Charles John Schick passed away peacefully and joyfully in Salt Lake City, Utah on December 6, 2021 at the age of 64, when he was reunited with his loving parents, grandparents, niece (Carol), nephew (Kevin) and many others who were waiting for him to return home. He was born to Hyrum Schick, Sr. and Carol F. Schick on March 19, 1957 in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Chuck was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and he had a strong testimony of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and His Atonement for all mankind. He attended West High School and graduated from the Columbus Community Center in 1977. He loved astronomy, dinosaurs and reading almanacs. He also had impeccable penmanship and a photographic memory.

He was able to remember many significant dates, facts and historical events and loved talking to others about them. He was also a kind, gentle, loving and compassionate soul, who delighted in taking care of his mother (after his father died) and his sister (Marlana) after his mother died. He also enjoyed helping other residents who lived with him at the Hillcrest Care Center for the last 21 years, even if it were just opening a door for someone.

Chuck is survived by his siblings: April (Lowell) Penrod, Hyrum Schick, Jr., Christopher (Robin) Schick, Marlana Schick, and by 7 nieces and 3 nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, grandparents, a niece and a nephew.
