

Siaosi Tupou Alana Brown

April 27, 1995 ~ June 4, 2017

Our dear son/brother/uncle Siaosi Tupou Alana Brown returned home to our loving Heavenly Father on June 4th 2017 while doing what he loved, hiking the beautiful Bell Canyon Trail with some of his closest friends.

Siaosi was known for his upbeat spirit and his unforgettable smile. He was never afraid to share his talents, which the Lord gave him. He was a dancer, guitarist, singer, athlete, missionary, songwriter, entrepreneur, comedian, brother, and friend to all. He can faithfully report that he used his talents for good and to build up the Kingdom of God. Siaosi shared many messages throughout his life but his last would hold true to all who knew him: "Trust in God's Timing."

In 2014, Siaosi was called by our Father in Heaven to serve the people of the Kansas Wichita mission where he served under the direction of President and Sister Bell. He made long lasting friendships with fellow missionaries and with the people he served.

Siaosi was preceded in death by his paternal grandparents Tevita ,ÄòAlapuku Brown and Ana Kafo'atu Alusa and his maternal grandparents Siosuia Teiko Fonua and Makasini Kioa.

Born on April 27th, 1995 to Siaosi Tupou Katakata Brown and Sela Kava Fonua, Siaosi was the youngest of 5 children. He is survived by his parents and four siblings: Sione Mateialona Brown (Amber Kaye Langi), David ,ÄòAlapuku Brown (Mele Alamoti Fuka), Peter Luni Brown (Valeria Moreno), Ana Kafo'atu Brown (Logan Malohifo'ou) and his Aunt Daisey Kay Brown; as well as his nephews and nieces: Sela Fonua, Siaosi Lennx Brown, Daisey Kaye Brown, Princeton ,ÄòAlipate Brown, Ana Kafo'atu Brown, Marley Brown, Amaiah Kafo'atu Brown, Tiago Brown-Moreno, Janet Lewa Malohifo'ou, and our newest addition Siaosi Tupou Alana Fonua.
