

Craig Max Sauer

September 10, 1957 ~ March 1, 2025

Craig Max Sauer, 67, of Salt Lake City, Utah, passed away on March 1, 2025. A doting husband, beloved father, devoted grandfather, and dedicated teacher, Craig's life was defined by his passion for helping others.

Craig spent his career as a massage therapist and an esteemed instructor, sharing his knowledge at Provo College, Ameritech, and Myotherapy Massage School. He had a profound impact on his students, always ready to lend an ear and offer guidance to those in need. His love for holistic medicine extended beyond the classroom, as he sought to heal and uplift those around him.

Beyond his profession, Craig was a skilled woodworker, a talented painter, and a man who found joy in creating with his hands. He served a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Denmark, an experience that shaped his lifelong commitment to service and faith. One of his favorite traditions was going out for sushi with his daughter, Kirsten, a time they both cherished. He also shared a deep love of storytelling and creativity with his son, Jason, spending countless hours playing and building role-playing games together. Most of all, he adored his granddaughter, Phoebe, and loved to make her laugh by pulling silly faces.

Craig was a devoted and loving husband to his wife, Roxanne, with whom he shared a lifetime of love and partnership. Their bond was one of unwavering support, deep affection, and shared laughter, and he cherished every moment spent by her side.

Craig is survived by his loving wife, Roxanne Sauer; his brother, Blair Sauer; his children, Jason Sauer and Kirsten Hobson; and his cherished granddaughter, Phoebe Hobson.

His kindness, wisdom, and unwavering support will be deeply missed but forever remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Family and friends are invited to honor Craig's life at a funeral service on Thursday, March 6, 2025, at 11:00 AM at Larkin Sunset Gardens 1950 E 10600 S (Dimple Dell Rd.) Sandy, UT 84092. A viewing will be held from 10:00 to 10:45 AM prior. To watch services live or view the recording, please click on the "Watch Services" button above. Interment to follow at same location.
