Colleen Haycock Kerr

June 9, 1918 ~ October 30, 2013

Colleen Haycock Kerr, last of her generation, passed away peacefully in her Sandy home surrounded by family on October 30, 2013. She was born on June 9, 1918 in Panguitch, UT. She was a mother; grandmother; great grandmother; brilliant artist; child of God. She was a lifetime Utah resident from Benjamin to Salt Lake City. She had a long and productive career with the Utah State Highway Patrol, retiring at the age of 69. She is survived by her son Kim (Cheryle) Kerr and her close niece Bonnie (Pete) Edwards, 10 grandchildren, and 26 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Max Howard Kerr, daughter Kathleen Kerr Littlefield, and son Paul Raymond Kerr, parents, Jesse and Lenora. Colleen has made her mark. Vaya con Dios, Mom.

Graveside services will be held Sat. Nov. 2, 2013 at 2PM in the Spanish Fork Cemetery with a viewing and visitation at Larkin Mortuary, 260 E. South Temple St., Salt Lake City, from 11am to 1pm. Online condolences at www.larkincares.com A special thanks to the staff of Rocky Mountain Hospice and Atria Assisted Living.