She married the love of her life, Daniel Levi Thomas, in the Portland, Oregon Temple on January 16th, 2004, where they were sealed for time and all eternity. Together, Daniel and Dalynn raised four beautiful and inspiring daughters: Mikaiella, Ember, Maren, and Dagny.

Dalynn grew up in the little town of Portage, Utah, and was lovingly nicknamed Dinzer Doo Lots Of Little Nothing (Dinzer Doo) by her family. She attended Fielding Elementary and Bear River High school until she moved to Wyoming in 1995. She performed with the high school drama club, most notably as Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz. She lettered in basketball and volleyball and was a member of the honor society. After high school, she went on to graduate with an associates degree from LDS Business College in Salt Lake City, Utah; and then a bachelor's degree from Lewis & Clark College in Portland, Oregon; after which, she completed an internship in Guilin, China.

Dalynn enjoyed music and loved to sing. She was passionate about photography and took thousands of pictures, her favorite subject being her four daughters. She loved tennis and competed ranked 4.0. She loved adventure and would pack her family into her car and travel to any number of wonderful places at a moment's notice. She was a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and passionate about the Bible, which reinforced her deep and abiding belief in God.

Dalynn is survived by her husband Daniel Levi Thomas and daughters Mikaiella, Ember, Maren, and Dagny Thomas of Salt Lake City, Utah; parents Timothy and Cynthia Williams of Coalville, Utah; and her brothers Benjamin Jeremy (Misty) Williams of Washington Terrace, Utah, and Ryan Timothy (Tracy) Williams of Mapleton, Utah.
