

Delmar Lynn Welch

April 14, 1933 ~ February 15, 2021

Lynn was born on April 14, 1933 in Bancroft, Idaho to Judson Wilford Welch and Alice Pearl Tomlinson. He died on February 15, 2021.

After a brief stint in the U.S. Army, Lynn discovered a love for cutting hair and worked as a barber for many years. He enjoyed traveling with his family, especially to Hawaii, as well as several artistic pursuits, such as playwriting, drawing, and playing several musical instruments. Lynn was always concerned for his family's welfare, and was selfless in wanting to help family members in any way he could; he was a very giving individual. He will always be remembered for his cheerful disposition and light-hearted spirit.

Lynn is survived by his niece, Sheryl Padjen, and his nephew, Jared Soper. He was preceded in death by his parents; an older brother, Arlo, who died as an infant; an older sister, Arlene; and a younger brother, Rondo, who died in a tragic accident.

Graveside services will be held at Salt Lake City Cemetery on Friday, February 26, 2021 at 3:00 p.m. A brief viewing will be held at Larkin Mortuary at 260 E. South Temple from 2:15 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Those attending please wear face masks due to the current COVID-19 pandemic.
