

Dennis Chin

November 29, 1949 ~ January 2, 2025

Our beloved Dennis Chin, age 75, passed away peacefully at home, surrounded by his loving family on January 2, 2025. Born November 29, 1949, in San Francisco, California, to Ben Sang Wong and King Chin Wong. On May 22, 1969, he married the love of his life, Rose Hong.

Dennis was a loving, kind, and devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He was a brilliant, self-educated man who valued excellence. People all over the world loved his adventurous and fearless spirit. What everyone enjoyed most were his countless stories, always ending in uncontrollable laughter.

In 1990 Dennis and Rose opened Chin-Wah Restaurant in Sandy, Utah. For 33 years it was the family's second home where they made many lifetime friends. Most important to Dennis was filling everyone's belly with their favorite dishes including his famous Phoenix Chicken. If you were lucky to be around him, you got to be part of his "Good Food, Good Fortune."

Many thanks to Denni's miracle angel, Dr. James E. Pearl, for his medical expertise and friendship.

Dennis is survived by his wife of 55 years, Rose Hong; son Jason (Rachelle); daughters Natasha (Lisi) Tau and Natalie; grandchildren Madison, Benjamin, Chesney, and Lucy Chin and Rosie Tau; younger brother Daniel.

A funeral service will be held on Friday, January 10, 2025, at 10 am at Larkin Mortuary Chapel, 260 East South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111. There will be a viewing on Thursday, January 9, 2025, from 6 to 8 pm at Larkin Mortuary and on Friday 1 hour before the service. Interment will be at the Mt. Olivet Cemetery, 1342 East 500 South, Salt Lake City, Utah 84102.

The family welcomes donations to "Tunnel to Towers Foundation" as an expression of sympathy instead of flowers in his memory.
