

Diana Lyn Sebrands

March 6, 1957 ~ March 6, 2023

Diana Lyn Sebrands had a beautiful birthday as she was reunited with her loved ones in heaven. She passed away early Monday morning, March 6, 2023. Diana was born on March 6, 1957 to her loving parents Ivan and Theone Blain. She was a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and sister and will be deeply missed and always remembered.

Diana grew up in Lindon, Utah and attended Pleasant Grove High School; graduating with the class of 1975. She was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and enjoyed serving in many different callings. Diana married the love of her life, Richard Sebrands, in 1990 and was later sealed to him in the Manti Utah Temple. Her greatest joy was spending time with her four beloved children and going on many adventures with them. Diana was an adventurous spirit, always wanting to visit new places and explore the world around her. She loved to find the most unique places to stay on the family's many vacations. She was always the first to give her love and help to anyone who needed it. We will miss her loving nature, sweet smile, and seeing the bobble head community on her car dashboard that she collected throughout her travels. We will always cherish the memories of the fun-filled adventures we shared.

Diana was preceded in death by her husband Richard Sebrands, father Ivan Blain, and mother Theone Blain. She is survived by her children: Quintin Haynes, Devin (Meagan) Haynes, Daniel (Katie) Sebrands, Kaylee (Christian) Sebrands; her siblings: Warren (Carol) Blain, Teresa (Michael) Braley, Roger Blain and all of her beloved grandchildren.
