

Doris Strong Jack

April 10, 1933 ~ Oct. 12, 2021

Our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, Doris Strong Jack, age 88, passed away on October 12, 2021.

Born April 10, 1933, in Salt Lake City, Utah to Elmer C. Strong and Thelma Ackerman Strong. She married the love of her life, Robert Mathews Jack on September 7, 1950.

She was adored by everyone that met her. Her example of unconditional love, kindness, and unselfishness will forever live in our hearts. She loved going for rides in the mountains, fishing, hunting, and most of all spending time surrounded by her loving family. She worked as a clerk for the Salt Lake County Assessor's Office.

Survived by son, Robert Mathews Jack, Jr. (Toni), daughters, Jody Lynn Morris (Bryan), and Lisa Anne Thackeray (Danny); six grandchildren (Josh Morris, Brandon Jack (Nicole), Jessica Thackeray, Crystal Loher, Christopher Jack (Alyssa), Megan Howell (Kyle); and 7 great grandchildren.

Preceded in death by her loving husband, Robert Mathews Jack; parents, Elmer C. Strong and Thelma Ackerman Strong; six brothers, Jack C. Strong (Barbara), Don J. Strong (Diane), Lynn A. Strong (Marilyn), Ted J. Strong (Virginia), Bob C. Strong (Carol), Dick Strong; and three sisters, Betty Robinson (Lewis), Ardelle Brooks (George), and Carol Strong.

Graveside services will be held for immediate family and close friends on Saturday, October 16, 2021, Larkin Sunset Gardens, 1950 East 10600 South, Sandy, Utah. A viewing will be held from 10-12 prior to the services. Burial, Larkin Sunset Gardens.
