

Douglas L. Kiholm

October 31, 1953 ~ January 27, 2022

Douglas L Kiholm passed away peacefully in his home on January 27th, 2022. He was born October 31, 1953 in Belle Fourche, SD to parents Francis J. Kiholm and Dorothy Dalton Kiholm. He married Shirley Ludwig Kiholm on March 17, 1973 in Salt Lake City, UT

He was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, son, and friend. His family was his greatest treasure, and he would do anything to make them happy. Doug proudly served in the United States Army and loved representing his country. Doug had a strong work ethic and always put his heart and soul into everything he did. He enjoyed making people laugh and always was the first to give a hug. Doug always put others before himself and lived a life of service to others and God. He was a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. Doug's faith in God and His gospel was strong, and through it, he persevered through life's trials tirelessly to become the amazing man we all knew him to be.

Douglas is survived by his wife and sweetheart Shirley, his children Michael (Carrie), Kristin (Ryan), Robert (Virginia), and Jonathan. His brother Gene, 10 grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents Francis and Dorothy and brothers Jimmy and Robert.
