

Dylan Douglas Miller-Mettome

March 12, 1997 ~ March 26, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that Dylan Miller-Mettome will be watching over us from above. You were such a great example. Your deep 3's will be missed; your golf swing can no longer be hysterically laughed at and every bomb out of the park will be yours to catch.

"Love", thank you for the biggest blessing of all, our sweet daughter Aaviana "mamas", who is your absolute twin. I promise to keep your memory alive for the girls. Thank you for taking "RaeRae" in as your own, she is going to miss you making her laugh. I am so grateful for the family that we were able to build together. Your girls are going to miss you so much. We love you in every lifetime. Jenny, Aaviana and RaeAmara

To say my heart is broken is an understatement, I'm utterly shattered. Dylan, you were not only my brother but my best friend. I loved you like a son. The bond you had with all my kids was truly unique and unbreakable. They loved you and looked up to you so much. You always tormented us until we said you were our favorite! You have and will forever be our favorite and our life will never be the same without you. I am going to miss you "ugly". Love always & forever, your Sister.

Son, you changed my life for the better the second I laid my eyes on you. I knew I was going to love you unconditionally. Thank you for picking me to be your dad. Jake, Vince, your Bonus mom Dawn and I will never forget the blessing you truly brought to our family. Please love Roo for us. Love Dad.

To my son, my bouncing baby boy. My pride and joy. Words cannot express the sorrow that I'm feeling right now and how much you mean to me. You were such a gentle, funny, caring, and loving soul. The impact that you made on everyone you met is permanent, instant and will last forever. You were one of a kind and impossible to replace. You are my heart and soul. No words can describe my pain and disbelief that I will never hug you, see you, or hear your voice again. You were the brightest light and on 03/26/2024 that light was dimmed for all of us. Aaviana is the most precious gift, and we will all watch over her. You'll always be my 'lil buddy. May you rest easy, Dylan. Life will never be the same again. I love you, Mom

"Blood don't make you Family"
