Emily was a devoted member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. She loved her ward, Liberty 3rd Tongan Ward, and was an exemplar of love and service especially to her family, her 20 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild. She helped raise each and every one of them and played a huge part in all their lives. She was the best grandmother ever and now their guardian angel. Emily was also an avid gardener. Her garden is the envy of their street and every year it yields plenty of pears, peaches, apples, roses, peonies, tulips and lilies, to name a few. Emily also loved to sew, crochet, and make other crafts such as "kato teu" baskets used for special occasions, and making her grandchildren's costumes for any type of Polynesian dance including the Tongan tau'olunga. She was an excellent cook and baker, some of her unforgettable dishes being her Thanksgiving turkey and stuffing, Christmas roast, teriyaki chicken, lu pulu, fruit salad, and pineapple pies. She loved to host parties, dance and listen to music. She was very neat and loved to adorn herself with flowers and oils. She had an unforgettable laugh and could make anyone laugh along with her. She loved to travel and spend time with her sisters and her friends. She will be missed dearly, but never forgotten. She will live forever in the hearts of all that had the pleasure of knowing her.

Emily is survived by her beloved husband, Silva T. Fonua; their 5 children, Fusina T. Fie'eiki (daughter), Lavinia T. Carter (daughter), Silva T. Fonua, Jr. (son), Nancy Nina T.
