

Epigmenio Kim Torres

August 10, 1974 ~ July 9, 2023

Epigmenio Kim Torres passed away unexpectedly on July 9, 2023, at the age of 48, in Sandy, Utah.

Kim was born in Santa Paula, California, on August 10, 1974, to Pamela Wilson Torres and Epigmenio Isydoro Torres. Kim had a happy childhood growing up in the small town of Fillmore, California, where he excelled in academics, played in the band and graduated early from Fillmore High School in 1991. Kim graduated from Cal State Northridge with a BA in Spanish and later obtained a BS in Accounting from the University of Phoenix.

In 1998, he married Elizabeth (Betsy) Winmill in Los Angeles, California. Kim and Betsy met during their teenage years when Betsy's family moved to Fillmore. They've lived in cities within California, Arizona, and Utah, where they settled and bought a home. Together, they welcomed 5 brilliant and kind children, who adored their dad and inherited all of his best qualities, including his humor! He loved to spend time with his family, where he enjoyed introducing his children to his favorite music and movies, and of course, new and exotic foods. One of Kim's favorite things to do was to work on projects with loved ones. He enjoyed cooking, car repairs, home improvement, gardening, or just gathering to work on Legos and puzzles with his children. Kim's quick wit and kind nature drew many lifelong friends to him.

In his career, Kim started in the insurance industry and transitioned over to accounting. He worked closely with his best friend, Justin Burnett. Most recently, Kim was the Corporate Controller for Danville Services. He would often speak with affection and concern about his friends and colleagues and cared deeply about their well-being. Affectionately nicknamed "The Velvet Hammer", Kim excelled at helping his team reach their goals, always with kindness and support, and was never hesitant to roll up his sleeves and pitch in when needed.

Kim was much-loved for his sense of humor, loyalty, compassion, and work ethic. He took great pride in being reliable and hard-working. Anyone who knew Kim would tell you that a promise made by Kim, was a promise kept.

He will be deeply missed by his wife Betsy, his children Sam (22), Phoebe (21), Gabriel (18), Jane (16), Lena (14), his parents, Pam and Epi Torres, and his siblings, Andrew (Camaille) Torres, Marta Mills, Joel Torres, and Robyn (Geno) Hammer, and many loving friends.

A Celebration of Kim's life will be held Saturday July 15 from 4 to 5pm (MST) at the Chateau at the Rose Shop in Sandy, Utah 1910 East Dimple Dell Road. A dinner for invited guests to follow at 5:30.

For those unable to attend the service in person, the family invites you to join via Zoom at https://us02web.zoom.us/j/85990753062. A free Zoom account is required and you will need to sign in to join.

In lieu of flowers, kindly donate to your favorite charity in Kim's name.
National Suicide Prevention Lifeline: 1-800-273-8255, or dial 988