

Ervin Darrel Allington

March 29, 1930 ~ June 11, 2022

Ervin Darrel Allington, age 92, passed away on June 11, 2022 after a painful but valiant struggle with bone cancer.

Darrel was born March 29, 1930, to Ervin Rex Allington and Lorene Isabel Roberts Allington in Salt Lake City, Utah. Darrel grew up in the Holladay area surrounded by grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins. From the time he was 15 years old, He worked at Granite Mill unloading the lumber from the trains, driving a truck, and as a carpenter and finisher. He used those skills throughout his life and developed enormous physical strength. He attended Granite High School, and the University of Utah. While at the University, he participated in Lambda Delta Sigma fraternity.

Darrel served in the Great Lakes Mission of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 1950-1952. He married the love of his life, Billie Joyce Bunnell in the Salt Lake Temple, March 20, 1953. Darrel served in the US Army for 2 years, then returned to his studies at the University of Utah receiving a BFA in Commercial Art, `MA in Educational Administration, and his Ph.D. in Educational Psychology, 1973.

Darrel taught English for 5 years at Evergreen Jr. High, Educational Media for 3 years at the University of Utah, and was an administrator in Granite School District for 27 years over the Media Center and numerous programs. There he also taught classes in learning creativity in the various subject areas for teachers as an adjunct professor for several local universities and colleges. He also travelled extensively teaching workshops for teachers around the country, helping many get advanced degrees. After he retired, he worked for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints as a writer in the Family History Department for 8 years. Throughout the years, he also freelanced as a consultant and writer for many schools, teaching groups, publishers and educational entities and helped design schools.

Darrel could not see paying someone to do what he could, so he built numerous structures and cabinets, repaired almost anything including our cars, wired, plumbed and learned the skills he needed for the maintenance of his home and family. He wrote dozens of beautiful songs, painted and drew a lot of art, wrote novels and stories, and numerous books on learning creativity and content mastery in art, math, music, language arts, and woodworking. He was, quite simply, a genius in so many areas, but never thought so himself. He was a very humble man, self-deprecating, but so full of pure love for others.

Darrel loved the Lord, his family, and everyone else, whether they were good to him or not. He treated the lowliest worker with the same respect and concern as the superintendent of the school district. He was a lifelong, devoted member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He kept his covenants and strove to always share with others the good news of the Gospel of Jesus Christ when appropriate. He also emulated the pure love of Christ more than anyone we know.

Darrel was preceded in death by his wife, Billie, his parents, numerous aunts, uncles, grandparents, cousins and friends. We know he is having a glorious reunion and will soon be a missionary in the Spirit World, which was one of his great desires.

He is survived by his sons, Daniel Ervin {Cynthia} Allington and Luis Aveytua; daughters, Linda Marie Allington and Jacquie Delgado; grandchildren, Elizabeth Allington {Nerryan} Nguyen, Tzeitel Aveytua {Parker} Bautner, Kiara Aveytua, Djosen Aveytua, and 11 great-grandchildren.
